Heavy Fighting Along Tel Aviv-Haifa Highway As Bernadotte Seeks Truce Extension

REQUEST UNANSWERED

Cairo, July 7.—(P)—Heavy Jewish-Arab fighting raged along the main Tel Aviv-Haifa highway last night as the United Nations last 11 hour efforts to extend the shaky Palestine truce.

Count Folke Bernadotte, U. N. Palestine mediator, told newsmen in Cairo that he will continue peace talks, even if his request for an extension of the four-week truce is rejected. Earlier at a conference in Tel Aviv, Bernadotte said he did not know whether Arabs and Jews would agree to an extension, but added he was hopeful.

At Lake Success, N. Y., Britain drafted a Security Council proposal calling on the Jews and Arabs to extend the cease fire. The plan set no expiration date.

The truce ends Friday. Neither Arabs nor Jews have replied to U. N. extension requests.

There was no official indication as to how seriously Jewish authorities considered the highway clash which occurred in Israeli territory between Tira and Jaba, about 10 miles south of Haifa. Telephone lines between Tel Aviv and Haifa were cut off during the night.

Two American marines driving U. N. truce team trucks were turned back by Arabs who fired on them for 40 minutes before they waved a white flag to stop the shooting.

An Israeli communiqué said last night that three Jews were wounded by Arab gun fire from Elin Ghazal and Jaba, which it described as Arab pockets in the Jewish area. The communiqué said a Jewish armored car finally silenced the Arab fire.

William K. McClure, Pathe news cameraman who drove from Haifa to Tel Aviv last night on a side road, said his car was fired on by Arabs about 20 miles south of Haifa.

Another U. N. driver, Marine Pvt. William C. Canipe of Shelby, N. C. said his truck was fired on when he neared an Egyptian army roadblock near Gaza. He said his truck then was permitted to proceed.

Canipe said hundreds of Arabs and Egyptian soldiers stood cheering as King Farouk of Egypt drove through Gaza. This was the first indication the monarch was in the city.

Miners Join Search For Missing Baby

Somerset, July 7.—(P)—Hundreds of coal miners, fellow workers of Lloyd Collier of Rural Ridge, turned out today to help hunt for Lloyd's 28-month-old son, Donald, missing since Friday afternoon.

The baby disappeared while playing near the Collier's summer camp, just outside Kooser State Park.

The parents said they are convinced Donald wandered to the nearby highway and was carried away in someone's automobile. The Colliers are not wealthy and could give no reason why they should believe the child had been kidnapped. Mrs. Collier said she is firmly convinced her baby will be found alive.

Sheriff Karl Hare said searchers yesterday concentrated on old mine openings, sink-holes, gulleys and streams into which the baby might have tumbled.

The Collier child's disappearance recalled the 1938 Mother's Day vanishment of four-year-old Marjorie West. The little girl was on a family picnic in a wood 15 miles southwest of Bradford, Pa. She straggled away to pick wildflowers for her mother and was not seen again. More than 100 state policemen, ordered to the scene by Governor George Earle, led a group of searchers which on one day numbered 2,500 persons. The search was abandoned after three weeks.

Tough Old Veteran of Fleet To Be Target For "Bat Bomb"

Pearl Harbor, July 7.—(P)—The tough old veteran of the United States fleet, the Battleship New York, turns her armor-plated hide today to the navy's weird new "bat bomb"—the first weapon to be used in her sinking.

The 30,000-ton warship, which emerged unscathed from two wars and survived two atomic blasts at Bikini, has been towed to a point 50 miles south of here to test the strength of Task Force 28.

Rear Adm. Marshall R. Greer, task force commander, said the radar-guided "bats" were used against the Japanese late in the war but by that time—Nippon had no major ships left for torpedoes. He said this evening's as-

Borough Council Grants Pay Hike to Employees of Parks And Streets at June Meeting

An additional pay hike of three cents an hour was granted some 20 employees of the Warren borough streets and parks departments at a meeting of town council in City Hall last night.

Several of the salaried staff "reluctantly" voted in favor of the pay boost because "of the manner in which it was obtained."

The pay boost resulted in a general review of the borough's financial picture with Finance Committee Chairman R. M. Krebs issuing a stern warning that an increase in the tax millage or some other form of new taxation will likely be necessary to make ends meet next year.

Young Bandit Slays Autoist After Holdup

Pittsburgh, July 7.—(P)—A 16-year old boy who held up a used car lot and shot a motorist to death was captured by police yesterday within 10 minutes after committing the crimes.

Police Inspector John J. Dean said the youth, Joe Manuel, was booked on a murder charge and turned over to the homicide bureau. Dean added that Manuel, in a verbal statement, had admitted both the holdup and the shooting.

Dean said the rubber foot two wrist watches and $4 in cash from men in the used car lot, then fled two blocks and tried to make a getaway in a car belonging to Robert E. Lennon, 38, a heating company salesman of Wilkensburg. When Lennon resisted, he was shot. Police found him dead in his car.

A few minutes later, Patrolman Earl P. Morrissey seized Manuel as he tried to run into a nearby East Liberty theater. Dean said Manuel had in his possession a .32 caliber revolver with three empty and three loaded shells, two wrist watches and a wallet identified as having been stolen.

Innocent Plea In Jamestown Killing

Jamestown, N. Y., July 7.—Plea of not guilty to charges of first degree manslaughter and carrying a concealed weapon were entered here Tuesday in City Court by Charles Anzelone, 51, Jamestown, when arraigned before Judge Allen E. Bargar.

The charges grew out of the killing of Spencer Brown, 49, also of Jamestown early Sunday during a fight between the two men. Assistant District Attorney Sydney Hayes charged Anzelone with fatally shooting Brown during the altercation.

Judge Bargar set a hearing for Anzelone for July 13 at 10 a. m. in City Court after he, Bargar, had conferred with Assistant District Attorney Hayes and Michael D. Lombardo, who Anzelone has retained as his counsel. Lombardo did not ask for bail for his client and he was taken to the Chautauque County jail at nearby Mayville to await the hearing, when, if the evidence warrants it, Anzelone will be bound over for the next term criminal court scheduled for August 30.

Governor Indicates Boost In Gasoline Tax Is Coming

Harrisburg, July 7.—(P)—Governor James H. Duff indicated today the 1949 session of the legislature will be asked to increase the commonwealth's gasoline tax of four cents a gallon.

The governor told a news conference that the highways department will recommend the increase to finance the commonwealth's big construction program.

At the same time, Duff announced a pay boost of $1,000,000 a year for 12,000 employees of the highways department.

The governor said the hourly partnership will go up five cents to 80 cents an hour on August 1 "in line with competitive prices and the increased cost of living."

The highways department said it was unable to estimate how many of its salaried workers would receive merit increases.

Duff, at the same time, made these other announcements on highway policy:

1. Secretary Ray F. Snook "will indicate before the next session of the general assembly it will be necessary for additional gasoline taxes to support the necessary highway program that is underway in the commonwealth."

2. The state had under contract or was building with its own forces $81,000,000 in new roads by July 1 for "the largest road building program of any of the states."

3. The state will build a new access road into Philadelphia from the projected eastern terminus of the Pennsylvania turnpike at King-of-Prussia.

Duff made his announcements about the pay boost and the highway construction program in a formal statement released at the news conference. He immediately supplemented it with comment which disclosed the other moves his administration is planning.

The governor's comment on a possible increase in gasoline taxes from the present levy of four cents a gallon came when a reporter asked if there would be enough money in the motor fund to carry through the highway building program.

Duff replied that he "feels confident" the secretary of highways will make a statement on that before the legislature meets in January. At the same time he declined to predict how much of an increase will be requested, if any is asked.

SEN. MARTIN SPEAKER AT V. F. W. MEETING

Pittsburgh, July 7.—(P)—Senator Edward Martin (R-Pa.) today told delegates to the 29th annual state Veterans of Foreign Wars encampment that an active interest in voting would keep America free from dictatorships.

In a prepared address Martin said it was not politics, but patriotism, to urge fellow citizens to vote.

The encampment, presided over by state commander, Frank C. Hilton, plans to deal with two major problems—housing and national defense—before adjourning Sunday.

COURT ACTION POSSIBLE IN MINE STRIKE

Government Rushes Preparations for Move to Halt Stoppage In Captive Pits

CHARGES INVESTIGATED

Washington, July 7.—(P)—Government attorneys rushed preparations today for possible court action to stop the strike of 40,000 miners in the steel industry's own coal mines.

Steel producers already have curtailed operations because of the threatened fuel shortage.

The 24-hour-old strike in the so-called captive mines started because the steel companies refused to sign the contract with John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers union accepted by the rest of the coal producers.

Steel okayed the $1 a day wage hi' and 20 instead of 10-cent a ton miners' welfare fund royalty but claimed a union shop clause in the agreement violates the Taft-Hartley labor act.

Denham, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, are busy investigating the steel industry's charges. These are that Lewis and his union committed unfair labor practices in insisting on the union shop, a form of compulsory union membership, without a prior NLRB election among the miners.

Denham's assistants arranged interviews and sought affidavits from attorneys representing both the union and the captive mines.

They hoped to finish their work in time for Denham to decide before tonight whether the steel industry charges are valid enough for Denham to issue a formal complaint.

Once Denham signs a complaint he can ask a federal court for a strike-banning injunction to last until the unfair labor practice charges can be sifted at NLRB hearings.

Lewis himself remained silent over the strike in the captive mines and the failure of 45,000 additional miners to show up for work in Pennsylvania and West Virginia commercial mines whose owners had signed the new coal agreement with the union.

Pittsburgh, July 7.—(P)—The latest walkout in the coal fields today idled nearly a fourth of the nation's 400,000 bituminous miners.

About 40,000 of the idle were miners in the steel company owned "captive" pits. They declined to work without a contract.

The steel companies did not sign the new United Mine Workers wage agreement because of its union shop clause.

Another 51,000 commercial miners in western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Indiana stayed away from work yesterday as the 10-day mine vacation ended.

West Virginia UMW leaders said the 35,000 commercial miners idle in that state were merely slow to start back after the vacation period.

But a spokesman for the Western Pennsylvania Coal Operators Association said the 12,000 idle in 40 commercial pits in its area were undoubtedly engaging in sympathy walkouts.

BULLETINS

Philadelphia, July 7.—(P)—Hard coal prices increases ranging from 50 cents to $1.10 per ton were announced today by the Lehigh Navigation Coal Company.

Whitley Bay, Eng., July 7.—(P)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin pledged today Britain will use U. S. girls under the Marshall plan wisely. "Britain is not going to have a night's debauch" with the funds, he told the annual conference of the National Union of Mine Workers.

Ludington, Mich., July 7.—(P)—Five crewmen were reported badly burned today when the tanker Edgewater caught fire in Lake Michigan, 23 miles southwest of here.

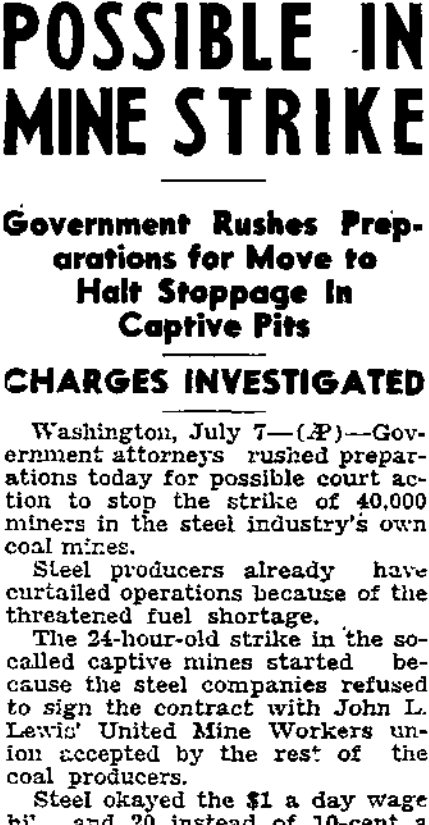

West Palm Beach, Fla., July 7.—(P)—Criminal Court Judge E. G. Newell will hear motions tomorrow asking dismissal of charges against Jack Dietrich, 31, of Corry, Pa., and two others held on charges of breaking and entering in a $10,000 jewel theft case.

Philadelphia, July 7.—(P)—The state supreme court today weighed the merits of a lower court ruling that witnesses may ignore with impunity subpoenas to appear before state investigative agencies created by administrative divisions.

First "Flying Coalman" Wings Way Into Berlin With Over Hundred Bags Of Fuel

Carole Landis Ends Her Career

(NRA Telephoto)
The body of movie queen Carole Landis lies crumpled on the floor of her bathroom in her luxurious Brentwood, Calif., home, after the star died from an overdose of sleeping tablets. The 29-year-old actress, who was divorcing her fourth husband, was found by actor Rex Harrison.

Hollywood, July 7.—(P)—Speculation continued today on what caused screen glamor girl Carole Landis to commit suicide. Friends and relatives blame an unhappy married life and financial troubles, at least in part. But her fourth husband, W. Horace Schmidlapp, flew in from Chicago yesterday to say he could see no reason for her to take her own life. He claimed she was "all right" financially. The 29-year-old blond actress filed suit for divorce against Schmidlapp last March 22, charging extreme mental cruelty. But her mother, Mrs. Clara Landis, said "Carole was deep in financial trouble. She had sold her house, her car—but things still piled up. She told me not long ago and with bitterness: 'Marry a rich man and support yourself.'" The actress had been negotiating for the sale of her mortgaged home.

Truman Backers Encouraged By Eisenhower Announcement Seek Fresh Strategy Orders

Philadelphia, July 7.—(P)—President Truman's aides moved today to cut off any gallery attempts to start a nomination stampede at next week's Democratic convention.

This maneuver obviously was aimed at preventing a speculator chant from reviving the collapsing boom for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Leslie L. Biffle, convention sergeant-at-arms, announced 30 Philadelphia policemen and up to 50 private detectives will be on hand to keep galleries from influencing delegates in their choice of a presidential nominee.

Most politicians still remember the same hall where packed galleries yelling "We Want Willie!" were credited with helping bring about the nomination of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Biffle, a staunch supporter of Mr. Truman's bid for the nomination, told a reporter he has heard that an effort will be made to stampede the convention.

He declined to say whether backers of Eisenhower are involved but no other campaign has reached boom proportions.

In Washington, Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman has no plans yet to appear at the convention which opens here Monday.

Some of Mr. Truman's friends said here they are confident the president will make a short acceptance address here if he wins the nomination.

Ross didn't answer questions about a vice presidential running mate, except to say that Mr. Truman's comment that the convention must make this choice still holds good.

Platform drafters, meanwhile, heard a plea by the American Farm Bureau Federation for a new government attack on rocketing prices.

Although Democrats in such widely separated areas as California and New Jersey declined to take Eisenhower's "no" as final, the feeling in this convention city was that it is all over but the shouting.

The shouting may center on various efforts to draft Eisenhower and to put Justice William O. Douglas in as a substitute. But party members who arrived early for next week's meeting of the faithful said that only his own action can prevent Mr. Truman from walking off with the nomination on the first ballot.

There was no giving up in the draft-Eisenhower ranks—at least publicly.

Despite the gaping hole their principal had torn in the draft movement, highly placed Democrats continued to speculate about the possibility that the man who says he isn't available couldn't turn down an actual nomination.

James Roosevelt, California state chairman, renewed his call for a Saturday meeting here to pick a candidate to oppose Mr. Truman.

Frank Hague, New Jersey satrap, called on Mr. Truman to take the convention platform and nominate the general—a circumstance that those supporting Mr. Truman said was about the farthest (Turn to Page Seven)

U. S. OPERATION TO RELIEVE GERMAN CAPITAL LAUNCHED IN FACE OF RUSSIAN WARNING

Berlin, July 7.—(P)—The Communists announced today a two-year plan to tie Berlin economically to the Soviet occupation zone of Germany. They warned Berliners not to pin their hopes for the future on the western air bridge over the Soviet blockade.

The Communists also announced they are drawing up a constitution for a German republic—their answer to the projected western German constitutional assembly.

At the same time the U. S. Air Force attacked the growing fuel shortage in blockaded western Berlin, which in 19 days has cut factory operations 40 per cent. The first "Flying Coalman" winged into Berlin shortly after noon with 110 bags of coal. The Americans began the operation in the face of a veiled Russian warning on the safety of their air bridge planes.

The Communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party (SED) announced in the Soviet sector:

"Starting from the fact that Berlin lies in the eastern zone and is tied very closely to its economy, the Berlin unity of the SED has worked out a two-year plan aimed at systematically incorporating Berlin's economy into that of the eastern zone."

One aim, it said, is standardizing products and spurring production.

Discussing this latest phase of the east-west battle for the German capital, the Soviet-licensed Berliner Zeitung said:

"If Berlin wants to live it has only one possibility at the moment—connection with the economic plan for the eastern zone. Berliners should seriously consider which is wiser: To build the future of Berlin on the swaying pillars of the air bridge or on a long-term plan."

The Americans arranged to send 25 C-54's with sacks of coal from Frankfurt to the western sectors of Berlin this afternoon. Each plane can handle seven tons of cargo. Heretofore the planes concentrated on building up food supplies. Western Berlin, meanwhile, further curbed street cars as a fuel conservation measure.

The scope of the air lift is indicated by U. S. Air Force figures on the 18 hours from 4 p. m. yesterday to 10 a. m. today, when 115 flights brought 610 tons of food into the city.

The Soviet-sponsored German People's Congress of Eastern Germany announced the plan to draw up a new constitution which it said would have official character. It said committees would present a draft to the congress.

The development brought nearer the day when Germany will have two constitutions and two governments—unless the big four breaks (Turn to Page Seven)

Reds Reject Invitation To Belgrade Meet

London, July 7.—(P)—Russian Communists refused today to participate in a Yugoslav Communist congress because Premier Marshal Tito and his followers have placed themselves "outside" the family of Communist parties.

The Soviet News Agency Tass and the Moscow radio announced the blunt Russian rejection of the Yugoslav invitation. The Congress is scheduled to open in Belgrade July 21.

The announcement seemed to underline the approval Russian Communists have given to the Cominform's condemnation of Tito and his lieutenants. A precedent for the appeal of Yugoslav Communists to Prime Minister Stalin, over the head of the Cominform, also has failed.

Nor was this the only jolt received by Tito's Communists. Tass said Albania has defied Belgrade's warnings that she must resume economic relations with Yugoslavia or face the consequences.

Yugoslavia accepted a four-power conference in Belgrade July 30 on future control of the Danube, the most important inland waterway in Europe. The U. S., Russia, Britain and France asked Yugoslavia in notes yesterday to call the meeting.

The Yugoslav decision to call the Danubian conference was disclosed in a government announcement reported here by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav News Agency.

The meeting will bring together representatives of the Big Four powers—the United States, Britain, France and Russia—and the Danube neighbors. They are Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Austria.

In announcing readiness to serve as host for the meeting Marshal Tito's government assigned to Austria only an observer's role with an "advisory note."

This was in line with a demand from Russia.

Benes Cheered On Streets Of Prague

Prague, Czechoslovakia, July 7.—(P)—Former President Eduard Benes was cheered again today in the streets of Prague. This time peace squads broke up the short lived demonstration.

Most of the crowd massed in front of the newspaper Svoboda (Slovak) beneath a huge electric display for the 11th Sokol Congress, and shouted "long live our president Benes."

Police ordered the demonstrators to disperse. When this failed, they moved through the crowd, arms linked. Some police carried small pistols as usual, but no weapons were used. Prague police do not carry clubs.

Street cars were ordered to move through the square without stopping at the principal station near where the crowd had gathered.

Yesterday Benes was cheered as 80,000 persons marched through Prague in the Sokol Congress parade. There were no cheers for his Communist successor, President Klement Gottwald. The United States and Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia also were cheered in yesterday's parade.

Two Die In Crash Of Greyhound Bus

Batavia, N. Y., July 7.—(P)—Two passengers on a Greyhound bus were killed last night when it skidded into a power pole along Route 5, overturned and burned to its frame.

Eight of the 13 other passengers and the driver were injured.

The bus was bound from Buffalo to New York City, via Scranton, Pa. The accident happened on a rain-soaked curve near Pembroke, about 18 miles west of here.

Killed were Mrs. Carol Frederic Elmshorn, 20, of Casport, and Henry Daniel Hulse, 21, of Columbus, O.

Traffic Lights Are Planned At Two Busy Intersections

Warren borough councilmen, meeting in City hall last night, approved a recommendation of the police committee to advertise for bids for installation of traffic lights at the intersections of Conewango and Fifth avenue and Fifth avenue and Market street.

The lights are to be of the four corner standard type, as now required by state law, instead of the familiar overhead light now in use throughout the borough.

Councilman E. W. Patchen raised the only dissenting voice to the proposed lights on grounds that installation of signal lights on each of the four corners at the two intersections would be more costly than the overhead signal.

Jesse Smith said traffic signals were badly needed at these two intersections, adding that during peak hours, motorists had to wait for as long as 10 minutes before traffic cleared sufficiently for them to drive from Fifth avenue onto the Market street and Conewango avenue thoroughfares.

Permits for the two lights were granted the borough June 2, following a traffic survey Police Committee Chairman Wayne Painter reported.

Councilmen also authorized the building committee to proceed with repair and remodeling work on various borough structures including the East Side and Central fire stations, and the airport buildings.

BABY MAIMED UNDER FATHER'S TRACTOR

Lancaster, July 7.—(P)—Lloyd Nolt, two and a half, sustained the loss of both legs yesterday when he was run over by a tractor-drawn mower driven by his father, a Saturday afternoon.

State police said Weaver W. Nolt, a farmer, told them he did not realize his son was near where he was mowing hay until he heard the boy scream.

The child was rushed to Ephrata Community Hospital where both his legs were amputated below the knee.

Borough Council Grants Pay
Hike to Employees of Parks
And Streets at June Meeting

An additional pay hike of three cents an hour was granted some 20 employees of the Warren borough streets and parks departments at a meeting of town council in City Hall last night.

Several of the council members "reluctantly" voted in favor of the pay boost because "of the manner in which it was obtained."

The pay boost resulted in a general review of the borough's financial picture with Finance Committee Chairman R. M. Krebs issuing a stern warning that an increase in the tax millage or some other form of new taxation will likely be necessary to make ends meet next year.

The three-cents an hour grant represented a compromise worked out with the parks and streets department employees following a two-day strike last month.

Councilmen, at their June meeting, gave the workers an hourly boost ranging from 4½ to seven cents. The workers, who had asked a 25 cents an hour raise, walked off their jobs for two days, returning after the compromise was reached on an additional three cents. The boost will be retroactive to June 1.

Borough policemen and firemen also had asked for a 10 percent boost at the June meeting, but their request was turned down on grounds that the pay scale for Warren borough police and firemen is comparable to that in Oil City and Bradford.

The new scale approved by council last night provides $1.03 an hour for mechanics and equipment operators, 95 cents for truck drivers and 85 cents for laborers.

Councilman Jesse Smith said he reluctantly voted in favor of the increase "because of the manner in which it was obtained."

"The fellows who didn't strike are working for the same pay," Smith added.

Council President W. E. Rice and Krebs expressed similar feelings on the matter.

Krebs then advised councilmen and townspeople alike "to prepare yourselves for an increase in tax millage next year."

"Whether we're going to get through this year in the black or not, I don't know," said the finance committee head, "but you can't keep spending money without a source of income."

Krebs said that up to this point the borough has been able to operate on a sound financial basis because some foresighted councilmen in past years had so arranged the budget that, unlike many other communities, the borough didn't need to make short term loans for operating expenses to tide it over until the tax monies are received in the fall of the year.

Krebs also declared that industry and property owners are taxed "just about as far as they can be," and that his committee has discussed a sales tax or some other form of tax on amusements, juke boxes, pin ball machines and other such taxes with the solicitor.

Numerous other councilmen joined in the discussion, with those who attended the recent meeting of the State Association of Boroughs telling of a wage tax for residents and non residents levied by Sharpville and several other communities. The Sharpville tax, it was pointed out, is collected by the employer.

Upshot of the whole discussion was that various committees were

They hoped to finish their work in time for Denham to decide before nightfall whether the steel industry charges are valid enough for Denham to issue a formal complaint.

Once Denham signs a complaint he can ask a federal court for a strike-banning injunction to last until the unfair labor practice charges can be sifted at NLRB hearings.

Lewis himself remained silent over the strike in the captive mines and the failure of 45,000 additional miners to show up for work in Pennsylvania and West Virginia and Indiana stayed away from work yesterday as the 10-day mine warfare ended.

About 40,000 of the idle were miners in the steel company owned "captive" pits. They declined to work without a contract.

The steel companies did not sign the new United Mine Workers wage agreement because of its union shop clause.

Another 51,000 commercial miners in western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Indiana stayed away from work yesterday as the 10-day mine warfare ended.

West Virginia UMW leaders said the 35,000 commercial miners idle in that state were merely slow in starting back after the vacation period.

But a spokesman for the Western Pennsylvania Coal Operators Association said the 13,000 idle in 40 commercial pits in its area were undoubtedly engaging in sympathy walkouts.

Whitley Bay, Eng., July 7.—(A)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin pledged today Britain will use U. S. girls under the Marshall plan wisely. "Britain is not going to have a night's debauch" with the funds, he told the annual conference of the National Union of Mine Workers.

Ludington, Mich., July 7.—(P)—Five crewmen were reported badly burned today when the tanker Edgewater caught fire in Lake Michigan, 23 miles southwest of here.

West Palm Beach, Fla., July 7.—(P)—Criminal Court Judge E. G. Newell will hear motions tomorrow asking dismissal of charges against Jack Dietrich, 31, of Corry, Pa., and two others held on charges of breaking and entering in a $10,000 jewel theft case.

Philadelphia, July 7.—(P)—The state supreme court today weighed the merits of a lower court ruling that witnesses may ignore with impunity subpoenas to appear before state investigating agencies created by administrative divisions.

Carole Landis Ends Her Career

(NEA Telephoto)
The body of movie queen Carole Landis lies crumpled on the floor of her bathroom in her luxurious Brentwood, Calif., home, after the star died from an overdose of sleeping tablets. The 29-year-old actress, who was divorcing her fourth husband, was found by actor Rex Harrison.

Hollywood, July 7.—(P)—Speculation continued today on what caused screen glamor girl Carole Landis to commit suicide. Friends and relatives blame an unhappy married life and financial troubles, at least in part. But her fourth husband, W. Horace Schmidlapp, flew in from Chicago yesterday to say he could see no reason for her to take her own life. He claimed she was "all right" financially. The 29-year-old blond actress filed suit for divorce against Schmidlapp last March 22, charging extreme mental cruelty. But her mother, Mrs. Clara Landis, said "Carole was deeply in financial trouble. She had sold her house, her car—but things still piled up. She told me not long ago and with bitterness: 'Marry a rich man and support yourself.' The actress had been negotiating for the sale of her mortgaged home.

Truman Backers Encouraged
By Eisenhower Announcement
Seek Fresh Strategy Orders

Philadelphia, July 7.—(P)—President Truman's aides moved today to cut off any gallery attempts to start a nomination stampede at next week's Democratic convention.

This maneuver obviously was aimed at preventing a spectator chant from reviving the collapsing boom for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Leslie L. Biffle, convention sergeant-at-arms, announced 50 Philadelphia policemen and up to 50 private detectives will be on hand to keep galleries from influencing delegates in their choice of a presidential nominee.

Most politicians still remember the 1940 Republican convention in the same hall where packed galleries yelling "We Want Willie" were credited with helping bring about the nomination of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Biffle, a staunch supporter of Mr. Truman's bid for the nomination, told a reporter he has heard that an effort will be made to stampede the convention.

He declined to say whether backers of Eisenhower are involved but no other campaign has reached boom proportions.

In Washington, Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman has no plans yet to appear at the convention which opens here Monday.

Some of Mr. Truman's friends said here they are confident the president will make a short acceptance address here if he wins the nomination.

Ross didn't answer questions about a vice presidential running mate, except to say that Mr. Truman's comment that the convention must make this choice still holds good.

Platform drafters, meanwhile, heard a plea by the American Farm Bureau Federation for a new government attack on rocketing prices.

Although Democrats in such widely separated areas as California and New Jersey declined to endorse Eisenhower's "no" as final, the feeling in this convention city was that it is all over but the shouting.

The shouting may center on various ineffectual efforts to draft Eisenhower and to put Justice William O. Douglas in as a substitute. But party members who arrived early for next week's meeting of the faithful said that only his own action can prevent Mr. Truman from walking off with the nomination on the first ballot.

There was no giving up in the draft-Eisenhower ranks—at least publicly.

Despite the gaping hole their principal had torn in the draft movement, highly placed Democrats continued to speculate about the possibility that the man who says he isn't available couldn't turn down an actual nomination.

James Roosevelt, California state chairman, renewed his call for a Saturday meeting here to pick a candidate to oppose Mr. Truman.

Frank Hague, New Jersey satrap, called on Mr. Truman to take the convention platform and nominate the general—a circumstance that those supporting Mr. Truman said was about the farthest.

U. S. OPERATION TO RELIEVE
GERMAN CAPITAL LAUNCHED IN FACE OF RUSSIAN WARNING

Berlin, July 7.—(P)—The Communists announced today a two-year plan to tie Berlin economically to the Soviet occupation zone of Germany. They warned Berliners not to pin their hopes for the future on the western air bridge over the Soviet blockade.

The Communists also announced they are drawing up a constitution for a German republic—their answer to the projected western German constitutional assembly.

At the same time the U. S. Air Force attacked the growing fuel shortage in blockaded western Berlin, which in 19 days has cut factory operations 40 per cent. The first "Flying Coalman" winged into Berlin shortly after noon with 110 bags of coal. The Americans began the operation in the face of a veiled Russian warning on the safety of their air bridge plan.

The Communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party (SED) announced in the Soviet sector:

"Starting from the fact that Berlin lies in the eastern zone and is tied very closely to its economy, the Berlin unity of the SED has worked out a two-year plan aimed at systematically incorporating Berlin's economy into that of the eastern zone."

One aim, it said, is standardizing products and spurring production. Discussing this latest phase of the east-west battle for the German capital, the Soviet-licensed Berliner Zeitung said:

"If Berlin wants to live it has only one possibility at the moment—connection with the economic plan for the eastern zone. Berliners should seriously consider which is wiser: To build the future of Berlin on the swaying pillars of the air bridge or on a long-term plan."

The Americans arranged to send 25 C-54's with sacks of coal from Frankfurt to the western sectors of Berlin this afternoon. Each plane can handle seven tons of cargo. Heretofore the planes concentrated on building up food supplies. Western Berlin, meanwhile, further curbed street cars as a fuel conservation measure.

The scope of the air lift is indicated by U. S. Air Force figures on the 18 hours from 4 p. m. yesterday to 10 a. m. today, when 115 flights brought 610 tons of food into the city.

The Soviet-sponsored German People's Congress of Eastern Germany announced the plan to draw up a new constitution which it said would have official character. It said committees would present a draft to the congress.

The development brought nearer the day when Germany will have two constitutions and two governments—unless the big four breaks (Turn to Page Seven)

The Yugoslav decision to call the Danubian conference was disclosed in a government announcement reported here by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency.

The meeting will bring together representatives of the Big Four powers—the United States, Britain, France and Russia—and the Danube neighbors. They are Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Austria.

In announcing readiness to serve as host for the meeting Marshal Tito's government assigned to Austria only an observer's role with an "advisory note."

This was in line with a demand from Russia.

Benes Cheered On Streets Of Prague

Prague, Czechoslovakia, July 7.—(P)—Former President Eduard Benes was cheered again today in the streets of Prague. This time police squads broke up the short-lived demonstration.

Most of the crowd massed in front of the newspaper Svoboda Slovov beneath a huge electric display for the 11th Sokol Congress, and shouted "long live our president Benes."

Police ordered the demonstrators to disperse. When this failed, they moved through the crowd, arms linked. Some police carried small pistols as usual, but no weapons were used. Prague police do not carry clubs.

Street cars were ordered to move through the square without stopping at the principal station near where the crowd had gathered.

Yesterday Benes was cheered as 80,000 persons marched through Prague in the Sokol Congress parade. There were no cheers for his Communist successor, President Klement Gottwald. The United States and Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia also were cheered in yesterday's parade.

New Asiatic-Pacific Medal is Available

S/Sgt. Maurice F. Tompkins, local recruiter for the United States Army and the United States Air Force, announced today that he has received a supply of the new Asiatic-Pacific Theatre Medals, and that they are available to veterans of that area. The sergeant requests that those ex-service men who are entitled to the medal bring their discharges with them when calling at his office. Army regulations demand that the discharge be presented and the proper notations made thereon upon presentation.

The medal is of heavy bronze and is approximately the same size in diameter as a fifty cent piece. The face side pictures two combat soldiers bearing the popular carbine. A background consisting of shell-torn palms, landing ships, carriers, and aircraft completes the typically Pacific battle area scene. On the reverse side of the medal presents an American eagle in a particularly forceful manner.

"Possibly because I served in the Pacific, I think this medal is the prettiest yet issued commemorating this last war," Sergeant Tompkins said.

Medals are available at the U. S. Army & U. S. Air Force Recruiting Office, Room 207, Post Office Building, Warren. The office is open from 8:30 to 5:00 daily.

K. OF C. TO MEET

Members of Warren Council Knights of Columbus are reminded of the important meeting to be held Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the council rooms. A large attendance is desired.

ERIE "GET TOUGH" POLICY

Erie's new "get tough" policy hit full stride Thursday, as 15 men were given 60-day sentences for disorderly conduct offenses. The stiff terms were imposed by Alderman William Heisler.

RESUME GAS TESTS

The Pennsylvania Gas Co. will start a new test well soon on the Alton Peterson farm on Carter hill, north of Corry. The new well, No. 5, will be drilled about 1,500 feet east of No. 1, the only one in which gas in paying quantity was found.

REBUILDING ORGAN

The task of rebuilding the giant organ in the First Presbyterian church in Bradford has been started by George Schmidt of Erie. Church officials have reported. This is the first major overhaul of the instrument since it was first built in 1919.

LETTER FROM GERMANY

Shirley Weaver of Titusville has received a letter of thanks from a German doctor for a gift package. The doctor, who lives in Bonn, Germany, wrote that he was particularly pleased with the soap in the package. He intends to use it on children because the German soap is too hard and sharp for their skin.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS

Industrial accidents showed a 22% decrease in May, according to figures from the department of labor and industry. As before, overloading and poor arrangement and the use of defective or unsafe tools or equipment accounted for over 60% of all accidents. Cuts, lacerations, punctures and bruises comprise 80% of all reported injuries.

STATE POLICE SAY:

When you stop at an intersection controlled by a TRU TRAFFIC STOP SIGN be sure to remain stationary until you can drive into the protected highway in a safe manner. Nosing into traffic, forcing traffic on "thru" highways to "hold up" is defeating the purpose of the Stop Sign. THIS error has accounted for many accidents in Troop "E" Area in the last few months.

FRESH AIR KIDS

Erie Railroad train No. 1 was one hour and 48 minutes late last Friday, but there was a good excuse to offer when it pulled into the Meadville depot on Thursday night. The train left New York City with two passenger car loads of "fresh-air kids" on their way to summer vacations. By the time the train arrived in Meadville all the kids had been dropped off at their destinations—but it wasn't practically every-four-corners stops for the Erie's through-liner.

"OBSERVER" MOVING

This week's The Sheffield Observer is the first to be published in the newspaper's new home located at 210 South Main street. Moving of the machinery and furnishings was begun immediately following publication of last Friday's edition and was completed Monday. The occasion marks the first time in the 46 year history of the paper that it has been housed in a building of its own. Its most recent location has been the old Tionesta Valley railroad station across from the post office. The newspaper plant and office occupy the first floor of a new two-story concrete block building which has been under construction for the past year. The second floor provides living quarters for the publisher and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Persche and daughter, Martha Ann.

RECTOR'S WIDOW DIES

Complications developing from a fractured hip received in a recent fall resulted in death of Mrs. Helen M. VanDyke, aged 70, of Smethport, at Hamot hospital in Erie Friday. Mrs. VanDyke was the widow of Rev. William Van Dyke and resided in Kane as newlyweds in their first charge, St. John's Episcopal church. The couple left Kane for Smethport where the Rev. VanDyke was pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal church for 34 years. Mrs. VanDyke was prominent in civic and church activities at that place for many years. She was attending a church meeting at North East on June 13 when she fell and had been under specialist treatment in Erie since that time. Death was attributed to embolism. Born at Ellicottville, N. Y. April 1, 1878, Mrs. VanDyke was the daughter of the late Frederick A. McCoy and Emily Leone Eischenfeld McCoy. The family came to Smethport in 1889.

So great was Lisbon's earthquake of 1755 that it disturbed water in Loch Lomond, Scotland, 1220 miles away.

ANOTHER EXCITING SHOW COMING UP

The Democratic nomination may be in the bag for President Truman, and probably is. But anyone who thinks the impending Democratic National Convention will be an anticlimax to the Republican choice of a candidate may be in for a surprise. Even if you like Mr. Truman as the winner at 1-to-100 odds, it's a safe bet that there will be some fireworks, predicts James Thrasher in an editorial written for NEA Service and The Times-Mirror.

A lot of voters can't remember any pre-Roosevelt Democratic conventions. But those who do will recall that some of them were pretty exciting shindigs. The party has always had a wide variety of political thought, and its maneuvering has tended to be of the open-field, not the smoke-filled-room variety.

Mr. Roosevelt changed all that. His immense popularity, and the tremendous Democratic successes it produced, left his delegates little to do except cheer. It was only in 1940, when the convention yelled for Paul McNutt for vice president and booed Mr. Roosevelt's choice, Henry Wallace, that an open rift was briefly apparent.

But this year some bitter differences are almost sure to come to the surface. Their causes are well known and well publicized. Southern conservatives don't like Mr. Truman's civil rights program. Northern liberals object to what they consider a too-conservative domestic record, or to some foreign policy decisions. Labor leaders seem rather lukewarm. And so on.

All these objections may seem to be aimed personally at President Truman, but they probably aren't. It is reasonable to suppose that a lot of the grumbling has its origin in the discomfort that several groups of Democrats feel after 16 years with some very strange political bedfellows. The Wallace third party has removed most of the far-left element that clustered under the Democratic standard in the Roosevelt days. But that standard still covers some very opposite philosophies within the regular party ranks.

Now it looks as if the varying groups may try to get what they want—if not in a candidate, at least in a platform—though by doing so they would widen present rifts even farther.

There was a hope among party leaders that something would happen to gather their voters into a compact and enthusiastic unit. But, on the eve of the convention, that something doesn't seem to have come off.

Anyway, it will be interesting to see what happens at Philadelphia. And whatever does happen is bound to be interesting. The cheers may sound as loud and long as ever. But it is certain that when the convention does reach agreement, the result will be no rubber stamp of approval.

CODE FOR COMICS

It is encouraging to learn that a group of comic magazine publishers has agreed not to publish any comics which feature sexiness or sadistic torture, glorify crime or foster religious and racial prejudices.

The new "comics code" was announced last week by the Association of Comic Magazine Publishers.

Fourteen of the 34 publishers in the industry have agreed to the following code:

Crime should not be presented in such a way as to throw sympathy against law and justice or to inspire others with the desire for imitation.

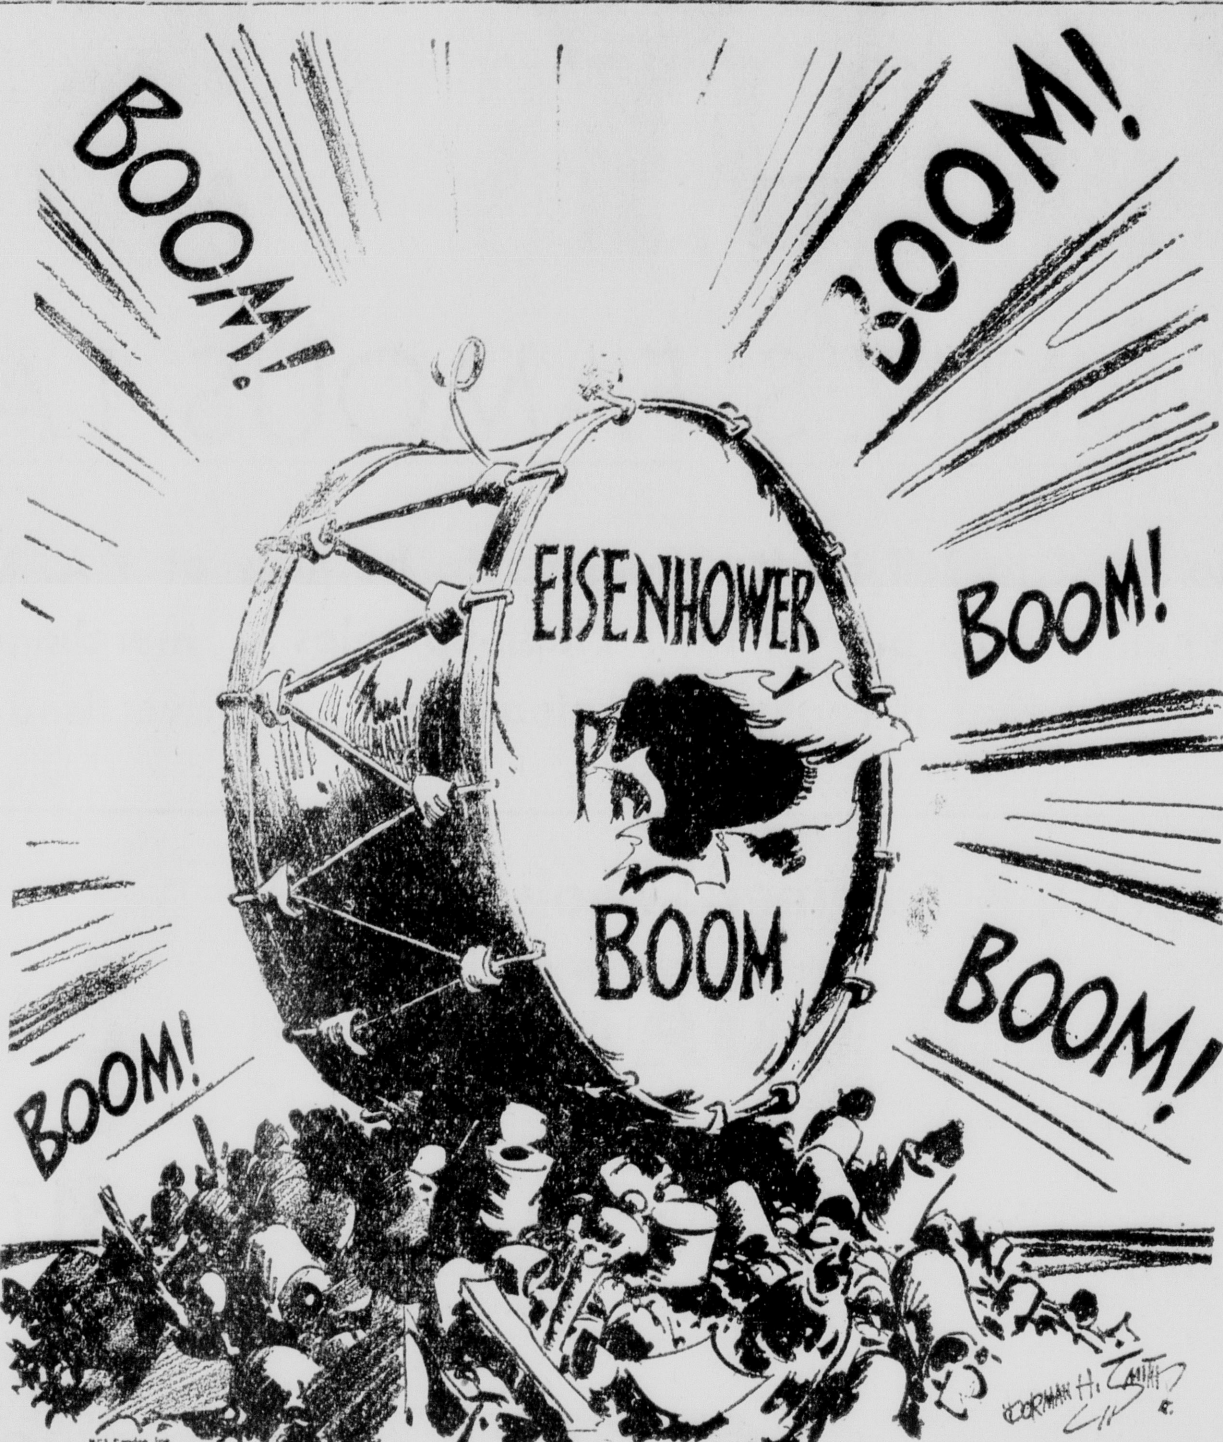

No scenes of sadistic torture should be shown. Sexy, wanton comics should not be published. No drawing could show a female indecently clad or unduly exposed and in no event more nude than in a bathing suit commonly worn in the United States.

Vulgar and obscene language should never be used. Slang should be kept to a minimum and used only when essential to the story. Divorces should not be treated humorously nor represented as glamorous or alluring. Ridicule or attack on any religion or racial group is never permissible.

The association, including members who put out 15,000,000 of the 50,000,000 comic books sold monthly in the United States, promises a drive to secure the cooperation of all other comic magazine publishers in the country. Signers of the code are pledged to devote their cartoons book to "good, wholesome entertainment or education."

Another voice in the growing chorus against comic books is that of Dr. Fredric Wartham, senior psychiatrist of New York City's Department of Hospitals. In the Saturday Review of Literature Dr. Wartham writes that comic books are "the greatest mass influence on children today." He believes the influence entirely bad.

M. F. Cowden and son Wallace H. of this city have secured passports from Deputy Prothonotary Blodgett and will sail July 9th from New York City on the S. S. Aquatania for England.

Greta Garbo was in the midst of one of her strenuous "necking" scenes at the Library Theatre movie last night when a little child punctured the silence prevailing "the audience with the query: 'Mama, what are they fighting about?'" which should be recommendation enough for the feature film "The Divine Woman", in which Miss Garbo stars with Lars Hansen and Lowell Sherman.

An attempt to set fire to the post office and Anderson Sisters store at Pittsfield was made early yesterday morning, a damaging fire being prevented when Mrs. J. E. Brooks, who resides next door was awakened by the throbbing of an automobile motor and the smell of smoke.

The Times is informed that the work of cleaning up the ruins of the fire that destroyed the Warren refinery three years ago will be started next week. This work will certainly be appreciated by the people of Venturatown as well

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM

Steel tubing poles for Titusville's new street lighting system are being installed by the Pennsylvania Electric Co., which has the contract for lighting the city. Manager R. L. Switzer said. The system probably will be completed in about six or eight weeks.

REPORT ON SMOKE ISSUE

Fire officials got a first-hand look last week at the city's smoke problem. In a 60-page report presented to Mayor Sherman Hickey, Jr., members of the Coal Producers Committee for Smoke Abatement, Cincinnati, O., compiled results of a survey they conducted there during the week of March 8 at the request of city fathers.

BILL LOMBARD ILL

Corry Journal: William P. Lombard of Blairsville was stricken suddenly Saturday while visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Della Lombard of Third avenue. Mr. Lombard, who is a former Corry resident, submitted to emergency surgery at Corry Hospital and his condition is reported as satisfactory.

COTTAGE ROBBED

Carl Pettit, of River Rouge, Mich., who has a summer home on Crawford road, two miles west of Mayville, has reported to the sheriff's department that more than $750 worth of household items had been taken from his summer home while it was vacant for the past two years. Mr. Pettit said a wall cupboard was stripped and taken. Three mattresses, chairs, lamps and even parts of a tractor also were stolen, he added. "They took everything they could without stealing the house itself," he reported.

Sparta Child Shot By Dad Accidentally

Betty Jane Bennett, aged 3, is recovering from the effects of a 22 caliber bullet wound accidentally inflicted on her left forearm and right leg by her father, Chester Bennett of Rome township, R. D. 2, Spartansburg, on Sunday about 6 p. m. The family lives on the Grant Farm, just west of the Fairview U. B. church on the Church Run road, a half mile north of Buell's Corners.

The child was taken to the Titusville Hospital, where she remained overnight and was then taken home early Monday afternoon.

Mr. Bennett told State Police of the Corry detail he had been in the back yard shooting snakes. He was using a bolt action Ranger 22 caliber gun.

He went into the living room of the house to unload the gun and started to remove the bolt action without remembering the gun was cocked. As he lifted the bolt, the hammer discharged the bullet which tore into the little girl who was sitting on the floor.

The bullet passed between the bones above the wrist, grazing one bone. It then struck the leg above the knee, grazed the upper part of her shin and then penetrated the leg near the ankle without hitting the bone.

Mrs. Hazel Schneider, Route 3, Titusville, a sister of Mrs. Bennett, who was in the room, corroborated Mr. Bennett's story. The Titusville police were notified of the shooting and they, in turn, notified the State Police.

Capacity House at Conservatory For Guiffre Recital

Another capacity audience greeted the young and well known tenor Joseph Guiffre, Jr., when he presented his junior voice recital Tuesday evening in the concert hall of the Warren Conservatory of Music.

With a true lyric voice that is rich in quality, Mr. Guiffre has won many listeners through his weekly radio program over Station WJOC, Jamestown, and gives indication of a promising future which friends will watch with much interest. He handles his voice intelligently, singing with great ease and uniformly through all registers. He displays excellent diction and approaches his songs with a naturalness that makes his interpretations most enjoyable.

The young singer chose three German numbers for his opening group, his foreign-language diction proving very satisfactory and a smooth vocal line characterizing his performance. His second group was the familiar and always popular La Donna e Mobile by Verdi. Beautiful simplicity marked the next number, Dvorak's Songs My Mother Taught Me, and Purcell's Passing By, proved popular with the audience. Fine control and good understanding of the art songs were shown in the Schubert Serenade and Reichardt's When the Roses Bloom.

Following the intermission, Dorothy Bohren, assisting student artist, played two piano numbers, Godowsky's Alt Wien and Liszt Etude in D. Miss Bohren, who is being graduated from the full Conservatory course in piano this evening, always provides a fine complement to any program and her playing of these two familiar airs proved no exception.

Continuing, Mr. Guiffre demonstrated that he is particularly at home in the popular media, with a beautiful interpretation and fine breath control in Sinding's Sylvestre; good tempo and emotional feeling in The Hills of Home, and a fine rhythmic feeling and understanding in Cole Porter's Begin the Beguine.

Miss Adelaide Swanson, Conservatory staff member, was at the piano for an artistic background for the singer.

Hard water has been one of the housewife's biggest hurdles for centuries. The minerals that make water hard combine with soap in washing and leave a film or streaks on dishes and glassware as seen on the goblet on the right. With Tide, Procter & Gamble's new washing product, the old problem has been solved. Tide makes hard water soft, a mere memory, and glasses and dishes wash sparkling clean as shown on the left. No time-consuming wiping, either—just wash, rinse and let them drain dry!

HISTORIC MEDICAL HIGHLIGHTS—No. 40

LIFE OR DEATH

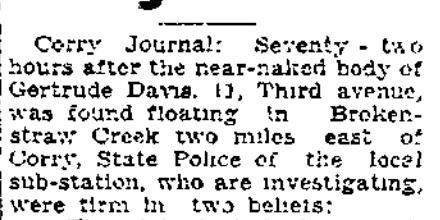

Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever was first known by the Mormons, shortly after they established Salt Lake City in 1845 and it has plagued the inhabitants of the Western United States ever since. It was not until 1902 that the infectious wood tick was found to be the cause of this disease. The matured tick crawls from grass or shrubs to the legs of passers-by from whom it sucks blood... transmitting a deadly infection. Until recently, when an effective serum was produced from the intestines of infected ticks, Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever was nearly always fatal.

In such small things lie the difference between life and death, a tiny tick—or yes, a tiny mistake in the compounding of a prescription. Our Pharmacists know the importance of their work—their accuracy is unflinching.

Probe Into Drowning Is Being Pushed

1. The child had died an accidental drowning death and had not been criminally assaulted as has been rumored in spite of a doctor's verdict to the effect she had not been molested.

2. Campbells had accompanied her to the swimming pool known as "Shoot-the-Cat" in the Bronx, about half south of the iron bridge which carries Route 426 over the stream.

So far, all efforts of officers have been unsuccessful in locating any children or adults who might have accompanied the child to the stream sometime Wednesday when she first became missing.

Investigation in the case was centering on attempting to find someone who had been swimming in the pool on Wednesday and who might reveal the names of those who were with the victim.

The body of the child who is the daughter of William Henry Davis, Third avenue, and Mrs. Frank Delbo, Erie, was found about 7:45 o'clock Saturday evening by Paul Carrier, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carrier, East Main street, next Frederick Fish, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fish, also of East Main street.

Clarendon Old Home Week Meeting With Great Success

The grand opening of Clarendon's Old Home Week celebration, which got under way on Monday, has been termed a success from every standpoint.

The mammoth fireworks display, which was staged one-half hour earlier than scheduled time because of threatening weather conditions, was viewed by a crowd estimated at 4,500.

The display, which lasted a full 30 minutes, consisted of colorful aerial rockets, parachute bombs, lightning spinners, and concluded with the illumination of a beautiful American flag.

Committeemen of the Marshall Larsen Post, VFW, sponsors of the celebration, were kept busy throughout the evening handling the huge crowd which packed the I. K. Wallace Attractions carnival. It was unfortunate that the Weather Man failed to cooperate with the Boy Scouts in their ice cream social and display of handcraft arranged for Tuesday and these events were rained out.

Today was designated by the committee as Old Timers' Day and all former Clarendonites and friends are cordially invited to participate in the activities planned in the IOOF Hall and at the carnival grounds. Supper is to be served at the hall between five and six o'clock this evening, the committee providing coffee, cream and sugar.

Scheduled weekend activities will be announced in a later edition.

Borough Council Grants Pay Hike to Employees Of Parks and Streets

asked to have their estimated financial needs in good shape for next year at the time the budget is drawn, and not wait until several months after the budget is approved to put in requests for pay boosts or other expenditures for which no provision was made.

President Rice said, "Mr. Krebs has placed the handwriting on the wall, but we'll have to wait until the budget is drawn to know where we stand."

One bright spot in the borough's financial picture was given by Krebs when he reported $5,500 was paid July 1 from the borough's sinking fund, with $300 going for interest and $8,000 used to retire 1936 Bonds numbered 41 to 48, inclusive.

This reduced the bonded indebtedness of the borough to $30,000, with an additional $6,000 to be retired Oct. 1. The entire amount is scheduled to be cleared off in 1950.

Meanwhile, Soviet-licensed newspapers published the news that the western powers have sent notes to Moscow protesting the blockade. One of these papers, the Berlin Zeitung, seized the occasion to again urge a new meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers.

The Russians were reported to have issued a vague warning concerning the safety of American planes flying food and essential supplies to Soviet-blockaded Berlin.

Market Quotations

New York, July 7—(AP)—The stock market slowly backed down today to around a point today. Losses were well distributed and even the popular rails and oils slipped into the minus column. Business was about even with yesterday's slow session when less than 1,000,000 shares changed hands.

Wall street reported two factors as blocking a continuation of the advance that carried the market yesterday to a new average high since August 1945. They were persistent concern over the east-west argument over blockaded Berlin, and the walk-out of soft coal miners employed by steel-mill-owned mines.

Barbara Lee and her brother told police a negro leaped in front of Barbara's bicycle from the underbrush as they were peddling along the road.

They saw the man flash a knife. Then Barbara and the man disappeared in the woods. Barbara came out a few minutes later, bleeding from a deep chest wound. Police say she must have been stabbed while on the bicycle as her bloody handprint was found on the road beside it.

She was given first aid at a doctor's office, but died enroute to a hospital in an ambulance. Before she lapsed into unconsciousness, she murmured, "A colored man hit me."

Bike's Position Is Further Amplified

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., July 7—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower plans to devote his time to "preaching, teaching and living Americanism."

In a letter to Hugh M. Sutton, Fort Lauderdale attorney, the Columbia University President told why he would not seek the Democratic presidential nomination in these words:

"My own position of absence from partisan strife was taken as a result of sincere and objective reflection.

"For whatever it may be worth I hope that, free of any slightest suspicion that my views are colored by partisan approach, I may devote the time left to me to preaching, teaching and living Americanism. By that term I mean to include, among other things, devotion to the concept of human freedom and dignity of man; adherence to the system of free enterprise and recognition that a positive program of supporting freedom both at home and abroad is essential to our future well-being."

Search On In Baltimore For Child's Killer

Baltimore, July 7—(AP)—Every available Baltimore policeman was mobilized today to comb a wide area of the city's northern suburbs for trace of a "maniacal" killer of 11-year-old Marsha Brill.

Marsha was stabbed yesterday while bicycling with two playmates along a wooded section a few miles from the Pimlico race track.

Less than two hours later, a 30-year-old negro laborer was taken into custody as he emerged from a woods in the area.

He was viewed in a lineup by Barbara Lee Sappstein, 11, and her brother, Alan, 8, who were with Marsha when she was killed. Afterwards, the man was docketed as "held for investigation."

Barbara Lee and her brother told police a negro leaped in front of Marsha's bicycle from the underbrush as they were peddling along the road.

They saw the man flash a knife. Then Marsha and the man disappeared in the woods. Marsha came out a few minutes later, bleeding from a deep chest wound. Police say she must have been stabbed while on the bicycle as her bloody handprint was found on the road beside it.

She was given first aid at a doctor's office, but died enroute to a hospital in an ambulance. Before she lapsed into unconsciousness, she murmured, "A colored man hit me."

ARRESTED AT CORRY

Charles Blais, of Bradford, formerly of Sheffield, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of larceny of about $6 worth of merchandise in Corry when he was arraigned yesterday before Alderman M. S. Cobbett in that city. Police indicated that he probably would be released upon making restitution, unless he is wanted on police charges in other areas.

Police officers arrested Blais on East Main street in Corry after he allegedly was attempting to sell packages of cheese, olive oil, steak sauce, tomatoes and other items at low prices. Police said Blais was seen to enter a delicatessen store and later emerge with his pockets filled with various articles. Clerks in the store said he had not purchased the items.

Additional WNAE Staff Are Revealed

The staff of Station WNAE has been announced this week by two additions to the program and engineering departments.

John Wellenhofer, a native of Salamanca, comes to Warren from Station WHDL, Olean, N. Y., where he was a member of the sales department. He will join WNAE's sales and continuity department, replacing Mrs. McMurris Allison, who in September will become the Y-Teen program director of the local YWCA. Mr. Wellenhofer will move his wife and infant son to Warren as soon as housing is available.

The second new employee is Arthur Ziehm, of New York City, who will serve as a transmitter engineer. Mr. Ziehm is a graduate of the RCA Radio Institute in New York and will be joined by his wife in the near future.

Members Of Rent Control Board Named

National Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods has appointed two additional members to the Warren County Rent Advisory Board, Frank P. Anderson, area rent director announced today.

The appointments were made from recommendations received from Governor Duff in accordance with the provisions of the Housing and Rent Act of 1948.

The two new members of the Warren County Rent Advisory Board are George C. Sarvis, 412 Hickory street, manager of Warner Brothers Theaters, and the Rev. J. C. Wygant, 314 West Third street, pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church.

The Warren County Rent Advisory Board has never been constituted by reason of the fact that only one of the original appointees made in October of 1947 agreed to accept the appointments. R. L. Blodgett, 118 Hedwood street, was the only original member appointed who agreed to serve. The additional members will be needed before the board may begin to function.

Mr. Blodgett stated this afternoon that he would be unable to serve because of his inability to give the time required in connection with the board's activities.

The Rev. Wygant informed the Times-Mirror that he has agreed to serve on the board. Mr. Sarvis was cut off town and could not be contacted to learn whether or not he would accept.

Clutch Hitting of Joost And Brissie's Pitching Help To Keep Athletics In The Race

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It can't be denied that hustle, fight and team spirit have been great factors in the amazing Philadelphia Athletics' surprising bid for the American League flag. But another reason not generally recognized has been the clutch hitting of Shortstop Eddie Joost and the steady pitching of Southpaw Lou Brissie.

The bespectacled infielder and the rookie southpaw combined their talents last night to lead the A's to a 5-3 victory over the Senators in Washington, which advanced the Athletics to within 10 percentage points of first place.

Philadelphia's victory coupled with Detroit's 9-0 triumph over the pace-setting Cleveland Indians, left the A's and Indians virtually deadlocked.

Joost drove in two important runs, one with a home run which opened the game. It marked the fourth time this season that the left leadoff hitter had opened a game with a home run.

Brissie, the much decorated war veteran, who pitches with a brace on his wounded left leg, was tagged for 11 hits, but struck out nine and pitched out of several tight spots to record his eighth victory.

The Red Sox made it three in a row over the Yankees by defeating the New Yorkers 2-1 in a night game at Boston. Ted Williams emerged from his brief batting slump by banging out three hits in four times at bat. The victory moved the fourth place Red Sox up to within six games of the pace-setting Indians and A's.

Sox up to within six games of the pace-setting Indians and A's. The third place Yankees are still two and a half games off the pace. Dizzy Trout humiliated the Indians with six hits in pitching a 9-0 shutout for the Tigers in a night game in Cleveland.

Paul Lehner's eighth inning single scored Al Zarilla with the winning run as the seventh place St. Louis Browns edged out the White Sox 7-6 in a night game in Chicago.

The National League leading Boston Braves gained a game on the rest of the first division by defeating the fourth place Giants at New York 4-3 while the second place St. Louis Cardinals and third place Pittsburgh Pirates were beaten.

Ted Klusazski, slotted a double with two out and the bases loaded in the top of the ninth to drive in two runs and give the Cincinnati Reds a 6-4 victory over the Pirates in a night game in Pittsburgh.

Ed Warlick scored on a wild pitch and Bill Nicholson, harried, hit his 10th home run in the eighth inning to give the Chicago Cubs a 12-10 victory over the Cardinals in a night game in St. Louis. The Cards had pulled up to a 10-10 tie after once trailing 10-0. Stan Musial smacked three hits in five times at bat to boost his batting average to a gaudy .414.

Hank Behrman pitched his first victory of the season for Brooklyn, shutting out the Phils 5-0 in a night game in Philadelphia.

Catcher Ardy Semnick of the Phils and Outfielder Gene Hermanski of the Dodgers were ejected for fighting in the first inning.

Archers Will Compete On Local Range

The Pennsylvania State Archery Association has selected the Warren Archery Club range as the location for the western Pennsylvania state championship tournament scheduled for next Sunday, July 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Metzler, of Ellwood City, who currently holds the field championship titles for the section, will be on hand to defend their titles, as well as archers from a number of other surrounding clubs.

The Warren Archery Club is making every effort to offer members one of the finest and most challenging field ranges in this part of the state, and extends a cordial invitation to all archers in this section to participate in the Sunday shoot.

Uniontown's win and Johnstown's loss last night sent the two teams into a second place tie in the Middle Atlantic League last night, each 2½ games behind Vandergrift.

It was history repeating itself. The two teams have been tied for second place seven times in the last three weeks. In the same time, Johnstown has held first place five times and Uniontown three times.

Vandergrift continued on its merry way, racking its fifth consecutive win, a 4-0 victory, over the Oil City Refiners. Vandergrift Pitcher Hal Kempka pitched four-hit ball to achieve his shutout.

The Johnstown Johnnies fell victim to the cellar-dwelling New Castle Chiefs, 9-1. The loss ended a run of eight consecutive wins for Johnstown. Joe Karalut allowed the Johnnies only five hits.

Eric, crowned Butler, 9-2 behind the steady six-hit hurling of Hugh Oser. Virce O'Grady and Bill Henry each got three hits for the Sailors.

Bob Lilko and Elio Bonetti lefted homers in the third inning, each with a man on base, paving the way for a 10-1 win by the Uniontown Coal Barons over the Youngstown Colts. Bobby Gardner hit a homer for Youngstown.

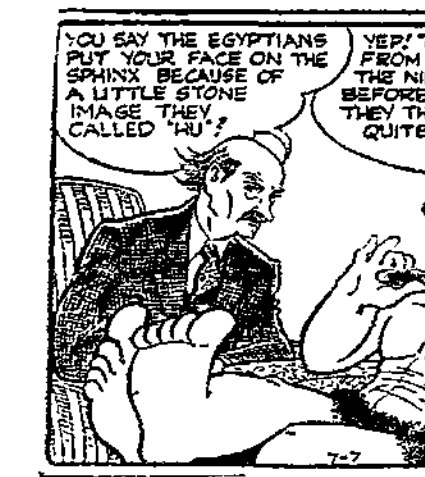

The Barons and the Colts racked up 10 double plays in the three game series, four of the plays occurring in last night's game.

Ted Williams, Red Sox—Singled to left, beat out a bunt down the third base line; struck out and singled to right. Boosted his average six points to .392.

Stan Musial, Cardinals—Grounded to second; to center; homered on the right field pavilion roof and singled to right twice. Raised his average four points to .414.

SARGE SAYS

In a lot of countries in this world a man must be born into the professional army class to ever hold the remotest hope of becoming an officer... this is not the case in the army or your Uncle Sam... In this country we work on the assumption that every man is entitled to as much as his neighbor, and all can aspire to even the loftiest positions without fear of ridicule... Today the United States Army and the United States Air Force need young officers in the worst way... We need 3000 a year and West Point provides only 500... So, in easy figures we can all see where the majority of the total must come from some other source... Officer Candidate School and Aviation Cadets... Requirements? 20 1/2 to 23 years of age... High School grad... Excellent character and sound physique... Aviation Cadets must be between 20 and 26 1/2 years of age... You young lads should talk this over... the pay of a 2nd Lieutenant, if he is unmarried, is $246 per month... That's only the starting pay, and—who knows?—we're going to need a lot of generals in years to come... A pilot, bombardier, and navigator get 50% extra pay for flying... Just imagine getting paid extra money for flying the finest, sleekest, fastest airplanes in the world!... It's a once-in-a-lifetime deal... I'd like very much to talk it over with you... drop me a post card, or drop into room 207, Post Office Building, Warren... I've got the facts AND the application blanks.

Regards,
S/Sgt. "Tommy" Tompkins

Fall Fashions Previewed At Store Meeting

"This fall the American woman is as conscious of quality and value as she is of style. She demands all three when shopping for her new fall clothes," Miss Olive Smith, fashion coordinator for Montgomery Ward stores throughout the country, told a gathering of fashion department managers at the Fashion Clinic held in New York at the Hotel Pennsylvania and attended by Mrs. Ruth Drury, fashion department head of the local Montgomery Ward store. Fashion heads from Ward stores in New York, Region V, also attended the meeting.

"The fall fashion forecast" Miss Smith says, puts emphasis on the continuance of longer lengths, but varies the theme in fullness. Coats, especially the dressy types have sweeping flared backs, while suits become slim and straight-lined again. Details are softened and more feminine to make every woman look prettier in her new clothes this fall." In the style show which illustrated Miss Smith's comments at the Fashion Clinic, a complete parade of fall suits, coats, dresses and sportswear was modeled.

Fall suits were shown in rich new shades developed in a variety of worsted menswear and gabardine fabrics. The flattering classic lines featuring longer jackets and longer straight-lined skirts are definitely news for Fall '48. Coats were shown in three groups—the versatile all-season zip-up lining coats in many fabrics and styles—the much in demand untrimmed coats in both swing and fitted styles—and the elegant fur trimmed coats enriched with deep cape collars or tuxedo of fur.

"Dresses," she said, "are striking and exciting. Skirts in dressier styles have fullness which hangs in slim silhouette lines but spreads out gracefully in motion. Now styling emphasizes the use of a combination of fabrics such as crepe and satin or crepe and taffeta. The two-piece dress is very important with its suit look, and is seen in the new fall fashions which are coming into Ward's stocks now," Miss Smith pointed out.

HAROLD'S ESSO SERVICE

HE'S NOT ON OUR PAYROLL...

but we couldn't do business without him!

When you take your car to an Esso Dealer Station for gasoline, motor oil, or a complete lubrication job—you're not really "doing business" directly with Esso Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania and affiliated companies, even though we make the fine products you get.

Instead, these 25,000 Esso Dealers from Maine to Louisiana are local, independent business men. You deal with the owners themselves—men who have invested their money and their initiative in building their own futures on serving you.

From many competing brands of gasoline and oil, these local business men have chosen Esso products. Year after year, they have seen first-hand evidence of the satisfaction to the buyer that Esso quality stands for.

As of today, these able business men have, on the average, handled Esso products for 12 years each. Many have bought from us for 35 to 40 years.

Obviously, we couldn't do business without these men. And naturally we're proud of them—just as proud of them as we are of the 29,000 workers who are on Esso company payroll.

Both groups—our own employees and these "partners" in their independent businesses—express this company's basic belief that individual enterprise, given its fair chance to earn fair rewards—is the best way and the American way to make progress with and for all the people of this country.

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, July 6—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Franklin, on the Warren road, was the scene of a delightful social affair last Sunday when 11 members of the 1944 Class of the W. C. A. Hospital Training School and their families met for a class reunion and picnic. Supper was served at tables on the lawn and a social time enjoyed. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson and son, Don Clymer, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hale, daughter, Donna, and son, Gary, Eustis, N. Y.; Mary Hoyt, Miss Evelyn Bedient, W. C. A. Hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Shannon, Chautauque; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bistau, Dr.

and Mrs. Jack Pickard, Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Read and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Cherry and sons, David and Sherwood, Corry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Johnson, newlywed couple, were given a shower party Friday evening by Mrs. Ernest Landin and Mrs. Theodore Allenson at their home, with about 40 guests present. Rev. Charles Grayter read scripture and gave a short talk. Mildred Norbeck sang a solo, and Mrs. Victor Landin gave a reading "To Any Husband or Wife." The many nice gifts were hidden and found by the means of alarm clocks and then opened by Mrs. Johnson. The hostesses served refreshments.

A special meeting of the Sugar Grove Reading Club was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Dorn

Wednesday evening, with Mrs. Scott Stuart, Sr., presiding at the brief business meeting. Mrs. Gerald Miller gave the report of the nominating committee and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Travers Stohlberg; vice president, Mrs. Stuart; secretary, Mrs. Dorn; treasurer, Caribell Swanson. CHAPTER 29
SHE found that Robin wanted to talk to her. He told her, as he held the door for her to get out of the big limousine, having drawn up before her door, that he had been wanting to talk with her about a certain matter for a long time.

"It's about Ellen and me." He dropped the cap and had to pause to pick it up. "We're fixing to get married, you know."

Hildred had known, but she smiled once more and said that that was fine. But she knew that was not all.

"It's been on both our minds, like I told you; Ellen, she's been after me. She said she knew you were going to get married, and she was a lady, and such a friendly one and fine, would understand."

Hildred murmured that she certainly would try.

"Mr. Lucien is fine, too—just fine!" Robin said. "He's giving us a little cottage on the plantation, that little white one near the edge of the big grove. He's done so much and said so more, which is another reason as I tried to tell Ellen, it don't seem right to mention this matter first to him."

"What is it, Robin? You know I'll do anything at all, if I can."

"I know you will, Miss—you're that good!" The admiration was a soft glow in his eyes. "It's the boy—Jimmy—we'd like to have him."

—Ellen and me. For our own, I mean. We'd like to have it done up in court, regular, so, Miss Hildred, if you get me, we will be ours, if you get me, we will be ours."

Hildred "got" him—and with it her own heart suddenly seemed too full.

"You don't think it could be done?" Robin was asking. His whole face anxious because of her silence. "There's too much in the big house for one small boy—the cottage would be a home, if you see what I mean, Miss Hildred? And we, well, of course Ellen and me couldn't begin to buy him all the things he could have, but we could care for him right and we think he'd be happiest in the long run."

"Robin, I understand—fully!" Now she could speak. "I think it's a wonderful idea. I think it would be far better for Jimmy."

"Then you'll talk with Mr. Lucien?" Robin's interruption came straight from his heart so that it would not be held back.

She said, "Yes, Robin, I promise you I will talk with Mr. Lucien." And in saying that she also sealed the fate that she felt was overtaking her. For she would have to make that her promise—Robin and Ellen must have the boy. If Lucien would consent to that, then Hildred would marry him.

Robin said, "Oh, thank you... thank you, for the both of us, Miss Hildred!"

SHE did not go with her mother to Atlanta. Mrs. McNaughten would not hear of it. She said that as long as Randy would be there Saturday—she was leaving, with Dr. Schoemaker Friday evening—it was not necessary for Hildred to go. For such a gentle little woman Hildred's mother could be quite firm when she wished.

"I'd far rather you come to see me afterwards," she said, as Hildred clung to her in a last goodbye kiss. "I'll be needing your company then, darling. You'll give me something to look forward to. I'd rather have it this way, please believe me."

"Then that's the way I will be," her daughter returned obediently.

"There's one more thing," her mother said, in that new firm way. She held her daughter at arm's length, looked into her eyes. "Remember what I said, dear, about constancy being a fine thing?"

"You must have it, too," her mother added now. "Toward yourself, I mean. You must stand steadfast, faithful to your own beliefs and ideals, and to your own self. That is the only way to find happiness."

"I'll remember," Hildred promised, wondering further why her mother spoke this way in parting.

"Promise me," her mother urged gently. "I know if you give me your word that you will remember—if a time should ever come when remember you must."

Hildred had never, in all her life, deceived her mother. But she felt she must deceive her now. She could not refuse this parting request. Surely it would be more wrong to do that than to give the promise asked for. She said again, "I'll remember, darling—if such a time ever comes."

"Don't come to the door," her mother admonished. "You know I never like actual good-byes, darling. Besides, this is not one—just for a few days—then I shall see my little girl again."

"That's right," just a few days," Hildred answered. And because of that bright confidence on her mother's sweet face, she could say those words with confidence, too. She could make her own smile bright, in this final moment.

How glad she was to be that she had managed that—to send her mother off with a smile, instead of with tears. For Mrs. McNaughten did not come out of the operation. She went to sleep—that same bright, confident smile on her lips, as Randy was to tell her daughter later—never to wake up again.

But before she closed her eyes for that long sleep she had said something to Randy, standing beside her in his long white doctor's robe and his white mask that covered all his face except his steadfast gray eyes that always would be the same.

In a lot of countries in this world a man must be born into the professional army class to ever hold the remotest hope of becoming an officer . . . this is not the case in the army of your Uncle Sam . . . In this country we work on the assumption that every man is entitled to as much as his neighbor, and all can aspire to even the loftiest positions without fear of ridicule . . . Today the United States Army and the United States Air Force need young officers in the worst way . . . We need 3000 a year and West Point provides only 500 . . . So, in easy figures we can all see where the majority of the total must come from some other source . . . Officer Candidate School and Aviation Cadets . . . Requirements? 20½ to 28 years of age . . . You young lads should talk this over . . . the pay of a 2nd Lieutenant, if he is unmarried, is $246 per month . . . Fall Fashions
Previewed At Store Meeting

"This fall the American woman is as conscious of quality and value as she is of style. She demands all three when shopping for her new fall clothes," Miss Olive Smith, fashion coordinator for Montgomery Ward stores throughout the country, told a gathering of fashion department managers at the Fashion Clinic held in New York at the Hotel Pennsylvania and attended by Mrs. Ruth Drumm, fashion department head of the local Montgomery Ward store. Fashion heads from Ward stores in New York, Region V, also attended the meeting.

"The fall fashion forecast" Miss Smith says, puts emphasis on the continuance of longer lengths, but varies the theme in fullness. Coats, especially the dressy types have sweeping flared backs, while suits become slim and straight-lined again. Details are softened and more feminine to make every woman look prettier in her new clothes this fall." In the style show which illustrated Miss Smith's comments at the Fashion Clinic, a complete parade of fall suits, coats, dresses and sportswear was modeled.

Fall suits were shown in rich new shades developed in a variety of worsted menswear and gabardine fabrics. The flattering classic lines featuring longer jackets and longer straight-lined skirts are definitely new for fall '48. Coats were shown in three groups—the versatile all-season zip-out lining coats in many fabrics and styles—the much in demand untrimmed coats in both swing and fitted styles—and the elegant fur trimmed coats enriched with deep cape collars or tuxedos of fur.

"Dresses," she said, "are striking and exciting. Skirts in dressier styles have fullness which hangs in slim silhouette lines but spreads out gracefully in motion. Now styling emphasizes the use of a combination of fabrics such as crepe and satin or crepe and taffeta. The two-piece dress is very important with its suit look, and is seen in the new fall fashions which are coming into Ward's stocks now," Miss Smith pointed out.

HAROLD'S ESSO SERVICE

but we couldn't do business without him!

When you take your car to an Esso Dealer Station for gasoline, motor oil, or a complete lubrication job—you're not really "doing business" directly with Esso Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania and affiliated companies, even though we make the fine products you get.

Instead, these 25,000 Esso Dealers from Maine to Louisiana are local, independent business men. You deal with the owners themselves—men who have invested their money and their initiative in building their own futures on serving you.

From many competing brands of gasoline

and oil, these local business men have chosen Esso products. Year after year, they have seen first-hand evidence of the satisfaction to the buyer that Esso quality stands for.

As of today, these able business men have, on the average, handled Esso products for 12 years each. Many have bought from us for 35 to 40 years.

Obviously, we couldn't do business without these men. And naturally we're proud of them—just as proud of them as we are of the 29,000 workers who are on Esso company payroll.

Both groups—our own employees and these "partners" in their independent businesses—express this company's basic belief that individual enterprise, given its fair chance to earn fair rewards—is the best way and the American way to make progress with and for all the people of this country.
